Lots of holiday parties are on the agenda to report this week. Among them was the New Year's Eve party given by Richard and Cecil Banaszynski, of 4832 Green Meadows Ave. Over 20 people attended the festivities and the evening included games, dancing, and singing. Many delicacies were served buffet style around a punch bowl.

Those present included Tom and Hazel Bishop, Bill and Doris Mead, Donna and Ed Franks, Terry and Suzanne Lynn, Don and Pat Johnson, Bill and Mary Morgan, and Harold and Mary Landrom. Also spending the evening at the party were two sailors, Arthur Bishop and Bill

Brown, relatives of some of the guests. From all reports the saloons were the life of the party—teaching the others how to do the Sugar Foot and Bop dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Wilson, of 24008 Janet Lane, gave a party for their neighbors from their former place of residence in Los Angeles and for relatives. Those present for the holiday get together were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter, Leo Smith, Mrs. Mae Myers, Mrs. Lucille Myers, Ralph Ping and Harlan's mother and brother, Mrs. Winnifred Wilson and Dale Wilson. They were served many different hors d'oeuvres, dips, fruit cake and coffee.

rite and Everett Robinson and Rosalie and Bill Davis. No games were played—they just had fun eating, drinking, and making merry.

The last New Year's party to report this week was given by the Orville Robinsons for neighbors and friends. Winners of games during the evening were Ray Smith, Janice Lee, and Roland Rogers. For refreshments there were cheese dips, and many different sandwiches, the usual New Year's punch and cookies and cakes. In for the evening's fun were Tom and JoAnn Doudna, Ray and Janice Lee, Ray and Janet Smith, Roland and Agnes Rogers, Bill and Marilyn Forrester, John and Mary Wilhelm, Bill and Jeanne Bowman, Bonner and Liz Adams, and Joe and Sonnie Tomchak.

James Gerard, born Dec. 28th, at St. Mary's Hospital in Long Beach. James weighed in at exactly 8 lb. His paternal grandfather, Mrs. Esther Mock, is visiting from Long Beach for two weeks to help with the other children, who are: Nancy and Christine—twins, aged 5 1/2 years; Mary Ann, 4, and Timmy, 22 months. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Kassube, of Dearborn, Mich.

On Dec. 15th the George Birch family, of 5026 Pacific Coast Hwy., added a new member to their roll. Todd Andrew was born in the San Pedro Community Hospital and weighed 9 lb., 5 oz. Todd's two brothers are Bryan, aged 9 years, and Christopher, 4. His sister is Tobey Lynn, aged 6.

The Birches have had an exciting season. Mrs. Birch's mother, Mrs. Tony Ballinger, of Lansing, Mich., came out to the Rose Bowl parade and game on a special excursion train. It had been three years since Phyllis had seen her mother. They attended all of the events together. Mrs. Ballinger heartily recommends excursions. They stopped at an Indian Reservation on the way out and saw Indian dances, basket weavers, jewelry makers, etc. Also stopped for four hours at the Grand Canyon. Mrs. Ballinger left Tuesday and expected to stop for a few hours at Las Vegas.

The next meeting of the St. Lawrence Parish Guild will be held in Mrs. Betty Collin's home, 3544 Newton St., at 8:30 tonight (Jan. 9th). Anyone interested in joining is asked to call Mrs. Peggy Plice at FR 5-3385 or Pat Yates at JR 5-5951. All of the Ellinwood area is included in Guild 4.

Bill and Rosalie Davis, of 4726 Green Meadows Ave., returned from a holiday trip by train to Indianapolis, Ind., on New Year's Day. They and their daughters, Susie, aged 5, and Nancy, 2 1/2, visited Rosalie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Snider, for two weeks. Rosie reports that it snowed three times while they were there. However Christmas Day was bright and sunny. The snow came a day later. They visited friends and relatives while there and were on the go constantly.

Janet Smith was hostess to her bridge club Tuesday night. Those playing were Jean Asher, Jeanne Burt, Cecil Banaszynski, Barbara Weaver, JoAnn Doudna, Barbara O'Leary, and Sonnie Tomchak. Barbara took the prize for the evening. Chocolate crusted Bavarian desert was served.

Helen Hackbusch, of 4520 Pacific Coast Hwy., entertained her neighbors with a musical evening, Tuesday night. The fun started when everyone was asked to join in a community sing. Later all guests were in a talent contest. Prizes went to almost all the guests so there must have been a lot of talent assembled under one roof. Refreshments of cheese cake and coffee were served to Jeanne Bowman, Dorothy Frey, Mary Wilhelm, Lucy Pessulich, Marilyn Forrester, Merla Wilson, Agnes Rogers, Janet Robinson, and Ruth Manchester.

On Wednesday, Jan. 11th, the Newton School PTA is having a "Get Acquainted Tea" at Mrs. Otto Willett's home at 221 Via Los Altos from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. All mothers of Newton School children are cordially invited to attend. The bigger turnout we have the nicer it will be, so please plan to attend.

$5,000 CHERRY PIES . . . Allen Smith, Carnation Co. representative, and Driver Oscar Rainwater look at one of the 2332 cans of frozen cherries which arrived in Torrance recently for use at the Simple Simon Pie plant at 21100 S. Western Ave. The cherries arrived via Pacific Electric refrigerator car and were transferred to a truck for use at the local plant. The contents of the car will be used to make some 85,000 cherry pies.

Smog Exhibit At Cavalcade

Smog, its control, and effect of air pollution on health are among features of an exhibit currently on display at the Cavalcade of Health and Medical Progress being held at the Shrine Auditorium.

The smog exhibit, sponsored by the Air Pollution Control District, features actual air sampling equipment in operation, explains the smog alert warning system and defines the District's control program.

Unique devices recently perfected in the field of medicine and health and other medical advances comprise the 112-exhibit show, conducted under the sponsorship of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn.

The show is open daily to the public from 2 to 11 p.m. through Jan. 15, and from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. weekdays for students and teachers.

Spring Course In Investments Begin Feb. 9

Los Angeles Stock Exchange's spring Community Investment Course will be held at Redondo High School, Feb. 9 through March 15, for residents of the South Bay area and surrounding communities. It was announced yesterday by the Exchange's Course Chairman Lewis J. Whitney, Jr.

The six-week informative investment series, now in its sixth year of service to Southern California communities, will be conducted Thursday evenings, 7:45 to 9:45, in the Redondo High School Auditorium.

According to F. A. Applegate, director of adult education for the South Bay Union High School District, the course will cover many interesting investment subjects and include top speakers from the field.

CSE Meet Tonight

The first meeting of the new year of the California School Employees will be held tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Fern Ave. School cafeteria. All classified employees are welcome.

Youth Hops from Car, Snatches Radio, Flees

A youth who hopped out of a car grabbed a portable radio and sped away in a waiting vehicle, Raino Elmer Karen, 16, of 25001 Walnut Ave., Lomita, told sheriff's deputies Sunday.

He was walking along the street near Lomita Blvd. and Walnut Ave., Karen said, when a youth of about 20 took his radio, valued at $45.

CAST REHEARSAL . . . Director Allen Jones conducts a rehearsal with cast members James Armstrong, Rosemary De Camp, television and motion picture actress, and Frank Sullivan, Professor of English at Loyola University and author of the script. The program, a dramatic presentation, will be a feature of the F.D.R. Rally and Box Supper to be held Saturday evening, Jan. 28, at the Exposition Park Armory. The event is sponsored by the Democratic State Central Committee.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERREY, JR.
A CHILD REFLECTS TOMORROW

A child may find more avenues for discovering mischief than all the streets in New York, "borrowing" more tools from his dad that can be found in a catalogue and finds more slippery rocks, more poison oak, more spiders, bigger grubs and ferocious ants than ten adults.

That child is a generous also of delicious apple pie; he gets into mischief not to be naughty but to find an answer. When he "borrows" tools he wants to express himself. A rock is something solid upon which to climb to greater heights, poison oak is a beautiful plant, grubs have a lowly job to do and ants teach a lesson of industry. That child is reflecting his tomorrow from a picture that only he can draw.

P.S. There can be no greater gift to you than our pledge; confidential business and professional relationship.
